~ OUR CLIMATE OF CHANGE™ ~

by

Car Ingman

This vital booklet is a compilation of predictions given by the 'Reappearing Christ' who was in Jesus and is in every major religion's expected returning deity: the Jew's Messiah; Buddhist's Maitreya Buddha; Hindu's Krishna; Islam's Mohammed; and all other religions whose basic principles were also originally founded upon 'sharing and justice, brotherhood and freedom.'

Mankind, for many thousands of years, has caused the separation of people by their differing beliefs, created through their differing languages, geographical locations, means of living, and self-obsessed ways. Even the identical 'basic principles' that were taught and practiced by each religious group were altered and distorted so much that they lost their original perfected intent to live sharing fairly and harmlessly, not only amidst themselves but with other groups and nations they encountered.

Even today, with civilization having reached the highest technological advancements and conveniences for people's well-being, two billion people - nearly one third of the world's population - live meagerly in filth and deprivation. Many live on the edge of starvation while the most advanced and wealthy nations use and waste most of the food and natural resources they've taken from the world's dwindling supplies. Our wealthy countries deal very unfairly with many of these suffering countries for profit, greed, and power through military domination and the connected control of their business associates. America's food store houses are filled but remain undistributed.

Most of America's religious groups continually vote for the same self-obsessed politicians, from local to national, who run our country in this massively corrupt manner - accepted by most people as perfectly permissible - while the waste, unfairness, pollution, wars, massive destruction of people's lives, their means to survive, and our common environment continues to approach the edge of destroying all life on Earth!

All the above and much more are the reasons why mankind's Earth-plane of existence and our sustaining surrounding environment is failing at such a severe rate that there could be no life on Earth within 10 years. This will happen unless we, as a world brotherhood of being ONE people, mutually interdependent for our continued survival, begin demanding that our governments, businesses, financial, and religious institutions take into consideration the TRUE facts and figures reported and predicted by the Reappearing Christ and His Masters of the True Ancient Wisdom. As They work amidst mankind, They now must intervene upon mankind's free will to evolve in our chosen ways of daily living; to inspire, guide and assist us openly; to start making such changes immediately!

Approximately every 2,150 years, at the change of each AGE, and well recorded throughout all the highest evolved writings and legends of ancient civilizations, a World Teacher appears before mankind, even amidst its many scattered peoples spread around the world.

NOT learning the truth of existence on Earth and doing nothing to make change for the betterment of mankind and our common environment is why things are so bad!

Around 325AD, Constantine, the Holy Roman (warrior) Emperor, removed vast portions of the Christian New Testament writings because he could not understand them. Around 550AD, Justinian, Holy Roman (warrior) Emperor, removed more vast portions for the same reason. This is recorded in the Roman Catholic Church archives.

Explanations of all requirements and predictions by the Reappearing Christ are listed below in italics and numbered; but first, the preparatory FACTS:

1. 35% of the New Testament scriptures were removed by Holy Roman Emperors, taking away the fuller explanation of Jesus' teachings.
2. The entire Bible is written in 'metaphors' (a story of one thing, told as if it were another, similar to Jesus' teachings in parables) because "Only those with ears to hear and eyes to see will be given the teaching." and "To those that have (an ability to understand teachings of the higher knowing) it shall be given, but to those who have not, it shall be taken away." No teachings in the Old and New Testaments are meant to be interpreted literally . . . this must be spiritually discerned and understood!
3. In the 1980's six Titan Missiles, launched by the U.S. Government to be put into space as satellites: all exploded mysteriously and crashed into the ocean shortly after being launched. They had nuclear devices in them as weaponry which the Christ and His Hierarchy of Masters of Earth will not allow to be put into space endangering the balance in our planetary system if they were detonated.
4. The Earth is the 'plane of experience,' through which souls born into flesh must learn to live their experiences in a harmless manner, in order to progress (evolve) to a higher state of consciousness (have ears to hear) to be able to understand the truth of existence on Earth' and live it at each level of their progress.
5. "Whatever we sow (do) we shall also reap (experience)," thus says the Law of Cause and Effect. It can happen in one's present life or in future lives on Earth (reincarnation of the soul from spirit back into flesh) to experience their requirement to receive what they have done, called Karma. Such lives may be repeated numerous times until a person receives their required experiences and lives harmlessly with no negative responding actions to their experiences.
6. In 1988, astronomers saw and recorded a 'harmonic convergence' of all the planets of our solar system, aligned in a straight line from Mercury nearest the Sun to the planet farthest out in our system, denoting their identical direction toward the constellation of Aquarius, signifying that this large constellation of stars and planets energies would be directed to Earth for the next 2,350 years. Great enlightenment will come to Earth's residents of their true existence and their need to live harmlessly amidst those meek and harmless souls now being born on Earth from 1998 through the next 2,350 years of influence this Age brings with it.

There are 12 astrological ages, of which Aquarius is the first and longest of their newly repeated cycle. All 12 Ages combined will last for 26,000 years. Pisces' influences from its 'Age of Individuality' was the last of the 12 passing Ages, waning in its influences now and until all the 'dark sided souls' currently ruling so corruptly in power lose their dominance and finally die, unable to return for their karma due them until after the entire Aquarian Age passes in 2,350 years. Every detail of these 12 Ages and their influences upon Earth and its inhabitants is FREELY explained in the Ageless Wisdom Teaching given in detail by our Masters of the Hierarchy of Earth for the last 140 years.

7. An Avatar, also known as a 'World Teacher' has been coming, at the changing of the last several Ages, to work with mankind in assisting the overcoming destructiveness of the waning powers of the passing Age and enhancing the more positive powers of the New Age. Ancient civilizations have recorded an exact 'harmonic convergence' at the change of each Age, directed to the specific constellation that was influencing that Age. Jesus was greatly empowered as He was overshadowed by the presence of the Christ consciousness within him at the beginning of the entering Age of Pisces. Jesus' life was an example to all, which would enable people to evolve to the highest states of consciousness possible for them in that life, as did Jesus. Moses was the World Teacher at the beginning Age of Aries, previous to Pisces, bringing new laws for the Jews and the world to live by through the Ten Commandments.

8. The reason a verse in the New Testament scriptures states that we should not listen to astrologers and soothsayers (one who can predict the future) is because dark sided (lowly developed) souls in flesh also have the ability to learn the mystical meanings of those astrological signs influenced upon us. When having knowledge of our exact time and date of birth they are thus able to victimize souls with their skill. Good people who are astrologers would only use such knowledge to help and benefit anyone who requests their services. Numerology and palmistry are also valid mystical means to gain knowledge which can be used for good or evil in a person's life. Such circumstances require the seeker of these mystical teachers to seek only those of good intentions, for one's safety, whenever contacting these people referred to as soothsayers in the Bible.

9. The Essenes, a devout communal community of an ancient Jewish sect living as kind, caring, and sharing, lived by the Dead Sea. Mary, Jesus' mother, and her cousin Elisabeth, mother of John the Baptist, and John's father Zacharias, the most devout and respected High Priest of the Jews, were all Essenes. This community of very high consciousness believed in five distinct powers of mystical knowing. They were: astrology, numerology, palmistry, psychic abilities, and reincarnation of the soul in flesh, in repeated lifetimes until that soul in flesh lives harmlessly, accepting its karmic debt which must be experienced. Jesus and his disciples often came to this community to escape from problems that threatened them. Jesus was raised in the knowledge of these mystical teachings and taught them to His disciples.

10. The 'Gnostic (knowing) Gospels' were also written by Jesus' disciples which explain, further, many things that can be learned and understood only by those who 'will themselves into that learning' enabling them to gain the realization of its Truth. These Gnostic Gospels were found, fully preserved in a sealed urn in a cave in the desert, in Nag Hammadi near Egypt in the 1940s. The scientific carbon dating process proved them to be nearly 2,000 years old. They were not, in any way, like the badly deteriorated Dead Sea Scrolls, found and kept by the Jews for 40 years by 12 different study groups of rabbis, whose conclusions of their contents were all different and barely understandable. The Gnostic Gospels were released to mankind, openly to all, in the 1950's by the Arab government that took charge of them from the peasant who had found them. Unfortunately, the illiterate peasant family burned all but 14 of the original 64 scrolls in their cooking stove before Arab authorities in the area heard of the discovery and recovered the remaining 14 scrolls, intact. They were easily translated in universities and made available in numerous books. These gospels' scrolls were preserved in the Coptic Christian Church and Saint Catherine's Roman Catholic Church in Egypt. Copies of their contents and their history have been written about in available published books, like The Gnostic Gospels by theologian Elaine Pagles; one of those rescued books, The Gospel of Thomas, is also well known.

11. Writings of the highest levels of consciousness have been published and made available to mankind in numerous languages worldwide for the last 140 years through the Theosophical Society. Staffed by a network of worldwide volunteers for 30 years, additional updated and more clearly presented sources are at www.Share-International.org. All these recommended sources have been directed in their written contents by the Reappearing Christ and His Masters of the Hierarchy of Earth. Every detail of mankind's existence on Earth and our relationship to the Universe surrounding our solar system has been provided for learning at every level of our abilities to understand. Vast portions of it are provided on the internet and some books are in America's state libraries. Many are purchasable used at low prices yet in good condition. Reading Rooms are about to be set up worldwide and will be freely available to all.

PREDICTIONS OF THINGS TO COME, BY THE REAPPEARING CHRIST

1. President Obama will be the last President of the United States of America
2. A consortium of U.S. State Governors will attempt to run our Federal Gov't.
3. A worldwide stock market crash will soon happen, collapsing its corrupt ways
4. A "Day of Declaration" by the Reappearing Christ, in an indestructible body of flesh, will be set up through a worldwide linked satellite network of television. All who watch will see Him. He will not speak with His mouth, but will instead mentally overshadow all of humanity simultaneously (above the age of 14, when the mind is capable of experiencing a telepathic message) with a brilliant white light for about 25 minutes. All people will hear His words inwardly, in their own language. Thousands of miraculous healings will take place. He will outline the future life for humanity and make His appeal for justice, for sharing as the only way to justice, as is to peace in the world. Our response to this event will determine the entire future of the world!
5. The Christ who is the Head of the Hierarchy of Masters overseeing the Earth is also known as Maitreya-Christ, with Jesus by His side and the other Masters of the Hierarchy, all known disciples. He knows what mankind's response will be to 'His Day of Declaration.' It shall be as described by Him here:
  - a. One third of the world will know that He is the world's expected deity and begin immediately to seek ways to serve mankind as needed.
  - b. One third will be uncertain of what they experienced but will shortly realize it was TRUTH they'd experienced and join the other accepting one third to begin the needed service to humanity.
  - c. One third will entirely reject their experience, insisting it is not fulfillment of their fundamentalist beliefs as their Bibles and holy books describe to them. Their insistence upon believing only their faulty literal translations of their holy books will cause them to fight against all the good energies of that 2/3rds of the world's populace who would change the world for the better. This 1/3 of the world's populace of lowly evolved souls, obsessed with their false interpretation of their individual religions' beliefs, fundamentalist-believing Christians, Jews, Muslims, and those among other beliefs will fight to their deaths against all the good energies that 'will change the world for the betterment of every living thing.'

6. The ruling ultra wealthy, who are only a tiny percentage of the world population, will lose vast portions of their power as the world's economies collapse drastically as a result of many decades of unfair manipulation of the world's populations, natural resources, unbridled pollution (poisoning of the world's air, lands and waters), domination through wars, corrupt governments, and much more.

7. Financial institutions will collapse and money will eventually become worthless.

8. Areas will move toward a period of 'barter system' for goods and services.

9. Americans will have to learn to live at half the material and financial level they now live.

10. All wars must stop and end their destruction.

11. All atomic energy plants MUST be shut-down immediately or as soon as possible! The reason for this is because they are leaking FOUR levels of dangerous radiation that mankind's present instruments are not capable of detecting. Scientists are already aware of these four levels of 'etheric (spiritual) matter' existing in our universe and which they call 'black matter' or 'dark energy' but do not yet understand what effects it has on our planet and its inhabitants. The Masters will assist us in the understanding of it and much more that is destroying all life on Earth. It must be corrected immediately!

12. The U.S. Center for Disease Control stated in 2007 that 35% of the people have cancer and that in the future 50% of our population will die of cancer. Maitreya - the Reappearing Christ - stated that by around 2012-2013 would be the turning point when mankind MUST start making drastic changes to correct the massive pollution that has been released; when mankind MUST be stopped and our ways corrected.

13. As of 2010, the world's oceans have absorbed all the carbon dioxide that they can hold. Therefore, our world will continue to have massive changes in climate with rising temperatures, and severe storms (tornado type winds, excessive rains, and accumulated snow), while other areas suffer droughts and even become deserts from lack of precipitation and dried up aquifers (underground water supplies).

14. 80% of life in the world's oceans are gone! Much of what is left is too polluted to eat.

15. The seas will continue rising, flooding, and taking over many coastal areas. The Florida Keys will be completely under water by 2050.

16. The world population of 7.5 billion people will not increase to near nine billion, as scientists have predicted, but instead will reduce at a future time to only three billion, the only amount of people that the Earth will soon be capable of supporting.

17. Our planetary systems' inhabitants from several planets of much higher developed consciousness, living in their advanced spirituality, creating and using space ships, have been assisting the lesser developed Earth inhabitants for a long period of time. They have been working from behind the scenes, so as not to infringe our free will to 'work out our own salvation' by living out our karmic debts. These harmless, helping space brethren, in total cooperation with Earth's Masters of our Hierarchy, will be made known that they have been lessening up to 40% of our illness and death-causing pollution. The rest of this destructiveness must be corrected by Earth's inhabitants.

18. Crop circles, created by these space brethren worldwide by the tens of thousands, in the time of only seconds for the last few decades, are impressing the energies of the new Age of Aquarius upon everything on Earth. While America and other ruling nations hide, deny, and won't report or discuss such very evident events, many other nations are revealing their overwhelming proof that most all of them are so spectacular and of such great perfection that only the space brothers could have created these crop circles. On the Day of Declaration, Maitreya-Christ will verify that this is all True.

19. The future will reveal and assist in our abilities to produce the greatest improvements of our means of living ever known to our present knowledge:

- a) Overcoming gravity so that mankind will have transportation without fossil fuels; noiseless, without vibrations or pollution; and will float above the ground safely and conveniently.
- b) All nuclear power plants will be shut down and sealed from causing any possible pollution.
- c) Harmless nuclear fusion, created from natural hydrogen in water, will be a temporary replacement for generating electric power.
- d) As mankind cooperates in these advancements, the knowledge will eventually, within several decades, be released to mankind showing how to install a 'Crystal Stone' on a shaft thrust into the ground beside any structure in need of electricity. The crystal will collect sufficient energy from the sun and stars, which will supply all the electricity necessary for any facility; from a home to factories, businesses, and whole cities' needs.

20. After the white light Day of Declaration, which will be a rapturous experience introducing mankind to the experience, means, and overall need to solve the mess our planet is in, people will have a great thirst for finding out how they can get more information on everything they want to know.

21. The worldwide volunteer organization of www.Share-International.org, which has been serving humanity freely for the last 30 years, will set up Reading Rooms worldwide to provide all the written information that has been available explaining every detail of how, why, when, and where all of this has come to be and how they may assist in every way they can. Www.Share-International.org is correct.

The time it takes, how much more suffering for mankind and our common environment, and what we must learn and live by to bring about all the necessary changes that will eventually come as we cooperate with the Masters, all their assisting forces, and our fellow human beings IS UP TO US! Please join us in the work and our growing enlightenment for everyone and everything. Copy these pages and give to as many people as possible, informing them of what they don't know has been happening and preparing them for all that is soon going to happen!

If you have no computer to use, you may call me from 1PM-10PM, E.S.T, seven days a week with questions or if desiring more information on reliable sources of this Truth. Leave a message with your phone number and best times to call you back on my (free) long distance.

The Masters request that we learn and practice Transmission Meditation, which They perpetuate universally and through us, as a means to 'step down' their high energies of positive change to a level humanity can receive. That process alone accelerates our enlightenment and evolvment to our gaining the 'higher states of consciousness' required to give us "eyes to see and ears to hear," as Jesus said in His parable in St. Matt. Ch13, 9-17.
